

Psychology Patient Pathway

Service Quality Statement 1: Heart failure services should have a clearly defined clinical pathway

Clinical Quality Statement 1: People with HF should be assessed for psychological distress at every contact.

Clinical Quality Statement 3: People with HF, receiving a psychological intervention should have their response to treatment monitored.

Service Quality Statement 2: HF HCP's should have access to a validated training programme to enhance their psychological skills.

Service Quality Statement 3: HF HCP's should have access to consultation and/or supervision with a Clinical Psychologist.

Clinical Quality Statement 3: People with HF, receiving a psychological intervention should have their response to treatment monitored.

Clinical Quality Statement 2: People with HF recognised as having psychological distress should have access to evidence based psychological interventions

Clinical Quality Statement 3: People with HF, receiving a psychological intervention should have their response to treatment monitored.

Service Quality Statement 2: HF HCP's should have access to a validated training programme to enhance their psychological skills.

Service Quality Statement 3: HF HCP's should have access to consultation and/or supervision with a Clinical Psychologist.